STUDIES ON BIBLICAL COUNSELLING AND RELATIONSHIPS

The following studies or principles of counselling, by Geoffrey Bingham, arise from a study of God and Man in the Scriptures, and the nature of the creation in which he lives. They take into account Man's death to God through sin, his broken relationship with God and his fellowman, leading to the healing and renewing of the person which comes through the Gospel. Believing that the wisdom required for the healing of troubled and purposeless people is found in the Scriptures, Geoff Bingham shares the principles and practice he has learned.
